4. Business
4.1 Business arising
4.1.1 Education Committee TOR
DVC (Education) Sharon Pickering agreed to change the wording of the Education Committee terms of reference to allow for the MGA membership to read “MGA President or student nominee”.

4.1.2 PTV concession campaign update
The State election was due to be held on 26 November. Transport Matters party leader Rob Barton had proposed that if he were re-elected he would continue pushing the issue by requesting an audit be conducted into the cost of providing graduate student concession. The official MGA campaign would end, but MGA staff and committee members would continue raising the issue where appropriate. Members were informed of an edited video now on-line. Maria noted it was important to continue to raise graduate student concerns at every possible opportunity.

4.1.3 HDR stipend campaign update
The university had announced that the stipend would be increased to $33,000p.a in 2023. This amount, though short of the desired target, was a considerable victory for research students. Radhik said he had spoken with Vice Chancellor who identified significant challenges faced by Monash University and explained this increase was the best the University could manage. The committee thanked Emily Pryor, Saham Hettiarachchi, Sarah May and Amy Barwick in particular for their contribution to the rally and campaign. Saham Hettiarachchi said that if he were successful in being appointed as the MGA representative to the GRC he would continue to lobby the University for the stipend rate to match that of Melbourne University.
4.1.4 New OB positions
The MGAEC approved 2 new positions: Sustainability Officer; and Carers’ Officer.

It was moved:

That the Sustainability Officer be created on the MGAEC.

Moved: Ken Chiu
Seconded: Anumanth Senthilkumar
Carried.

Radhik called for interest from members in taking up the Sustainability Officer’s position. There were no nominations and it was determined that future cooptions should favourably consider applicants with an interest in taking up this position.

It was moved:

That the Carer’s Officer be created on the MGAEC.

Moved: Ken Chiu
Seconded: Anumanth Senthilkumar
Carried.

Radhik called for interest from members in taking up the Carer’s Officer position. Rose nominated herself and was seconded by Radhik. There were no further nominations. Rose Huang was elected into the Carer’s position at the meeting as follows.

It was moved that Rose Huang be appointed as Carer’s Officer
Moved: Rose Huang
Seconded: Radhik Rammohan
Carried.

4.1.5 CAPA payment
The Committee agree to pay a quarter of the fee sought by CAPA in 2023 at the end of March, and continue to monitor CAPA’s performance before paying any further funds. Radhik announced that he had applied for election to the CAPA Board and Anumanth to be the CAPA Vice-President.

It was moved:

That the MGAEC resume payment to CAPA in 2023, with the annual payment to be made in quarterly payments with each payment being made only when CAPA has fulfilled that quarter’s performance requirements, as identified to CAPA by the MGAEC.

Moved: Maria Lammerding
Seconded: Rose Huang
Carried.

4.2 General Business
4.2.1 MGA 2022 budget adjustments
The budget adjustments were discussed. It was explained that $15,000 was required for the MSL annual software fee for the new website, along with an additional $2000 to cover the licence fee.

It was moved:

That the 2022 budget be adjusted by increasing the OHS line item by $2000, the Peninsula line, the minor purchases item by $8000, and the software line item by $17,000.

Moved: Anumanth Senthilkumar
Seconded: Sonia Daga
Carried.

4.2.2 MGA 2023 budget
It was moved:

That the 2023 budget as attached be accepted with an adjustment increasing the software budget from $20,000 to $30,000.

Moved: Saham Hettiarachchi
Seconded: Ken Chiu
Carried.

4.2.3 Expenditure on Parkville campus
Noted.

4.2.4 Orientation plan for semester 1, 2023
The orientation program had now been set. Radhik asked for members to volunteer at the various events.

4.2.5 MGA mentoring program
Jan Boey explained how the mentoring program worked, and how participants were selected.

4.2.6 Advocacy service on international campuses
Radhik explained he and Jenny Reeder had spoken with Professor Elliott and other global campus directors explaining it would be beneficial for advocacy services to be offered to all Monash graduate students regardless of campus. This service should be accessible and would ensure uniformity and consistency of advice. The MGA had the resources to offer this to overseas campuses but the logistics including delivery and costs were yet to be agreed upon.

4.2.7 MGA awards for university staff
Radhik announced he would form a sub-committee in 2023 subject to expressions of interest from members. The rationale for this award was recognition of University staff who went above and beyond their job descriptions to help graduate students. Eligible staff would be professional staff as well as academic.

5. Membership matters
No business.
6. Next meeting
It was agreed that the next meeting would be held in December at Parkville or Clayton at a date and time to be confirmed by committee members.

The meeting closed at 2.35pm.
